

Transport & Security

the real issues for 2025

04th September 2007

You are invited by Perpetuity and the Design Against Crime Research Centre to a seminar at Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design.

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

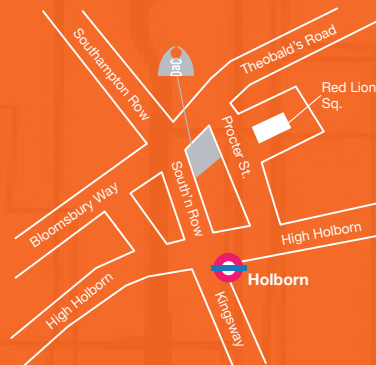

If you wish to attend please RSVP :

d.d.davies@csm.arts.ac.uk

The event will be held at:

The Innovation Centre
Design Against Crime Research Centre
Central Saint Martins
Southampton Row
London WC1B 4AP

12-12.50	Lunch at Innovation Centre, Red Lion Square
13.00-13.09	Welcome to Design Against Crime Research Centre Prof Paul Ekblom
13.10-13.39	Lessons from the Holborn Gateway – How to design out bike theft also introducing the COPS report Adam Thorpe, UAL, DAC, Bike Off and Dr. Shane Johnson, UCL, Jill Dando Institute of Crime Science/AHRC funded research
13.40-13.59	Designing and managing out crime from stations Dr Tim Pascoe, Perpetuity
14.00-14.29	Transport Accessibility and Community Safety in the Whole Journey Environment Prof Graeme Evans, London Metropolitan University
14.30-14.59	Interchanges and security – Getting it Right John Strutton, Crime & Disorder Manager, TFL
15.00-15.19	Break – tea and coffee served
15.20-15.39	Graffiti motivation and prevention – Transport premier targets! Kate Broadhurst and Gemma Keats, Perpetuity
15.40-16.09	Liberty versus Safety – Encouraging cycling not fear of bike bombs Prof Lorraine Gamman and Adam Thorpe/AHRC funded research
16.10-16.29	Questions and Responses Chaired by Terry Cocks, General Secretary, Designing Out Crime Association (DOCA)
16.30-17.00	Drinks reception and networking